

A Brief Profile of James Ono Emadoye MBA, FCA, FNCS, FSP

James Ono Emadoye (MBA, FCA, FNCS, FSP), a community leader and servant of the people is a highly valued and experienced professional who is at the apex of two fields of study. He is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountant of Nigeria (ICAN), Fellow of the Nigeria Computer Society (NCS) and Fellow of Institute of Software Practitioners of Nigeria. A Member of Computer Professional Registration Council of Nigeria (CPN), Institute for the Management of Information System, London, and The Chartered Institute of Taxation of Nigeria.

Emadoye served previously as the President of Crown Estate, Lekki Residents and Stakeholder Association 2018 to 2013, Vice President of Lekki Estates Residents and Stakeholders Association 2010 to 2018. Formal President of The Institute of Software Practitioner of Nigeria 2016 to 2018, former Chairman, Audit Committee of the Nigeria Computer society 2014 to 2018, former Council Member of the Nigeria Computer Registration Council of Nigeria 2014 to 2018 and served in several committees of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria.

Emadoye is the Chairman of Agbon Kingdom Electricity committee 2015 to date and the President of the Lekki Estate Residents and Stakeholders Association 2018 to date.

In recognition of his unalloyed humanitarian and leadership services, he was honoured with the title of The Urhukpe (The Light) of Agbon Kingdom by his Royal Majesty Ogunrimrime Ukori I, The Ovie of Agbon Kingdom, Ethiope East Local Government Area of Delta State.

Emadoye is married and blessed with children.