

Olusegun Paul Adetokunbo LADEGA

FNIA:

Managing Director, Interstate Architects Ltd. is a Chartered and Registered Architect with 40 years' consultancy practice experience in Architectural Design, Construction Contract Administration, Project Management, Facilities Management, Arbitration, and Dispute resolution.

His portfolio of successfully completed projects covers a diverse range of Building Types including:

- The Central Bank of Nigeria Head Office Building Abuja
- African Export-Import Bank Building, Heliopolis Cairo, Egypt.
- Nigerian Petroleum Development Company Ltd. Headquarters Building, Benin City, Edo State.
- Rebuilding of Central Bank of Nigeria, Lagos Office.
- The Civic Centre Tower, Victoria Island, Lagos
- African Development Bank, Nigerian Field Office Building Abuja.
- Zenith Bank Ghana Ltd. Head Office Building, Accra, Ghana

A well-known personage in the construction industry, Olusegun was pioneer President of the Association of Consulting Architects Nigeria (ACAN) (2003-2007); National Treasurer Nigerian Institute of Architects (NIA) (1993-1995) He had also served on the NIA Board of Education; a member Board Of Trustees Guild of Adjudicators In Nigeria (GAIN); He had also served as arbitrator appointed by the President of the NIA on construction contract disputes.

Aside from professional organizations, Arc. Ladega is actively involved in several religious, educational, and civic organizations:

- President, Lagos State Council. Boys' Brigade Nigeria
- Vice President, Lekki Estates Residents and Stakeholders Association.
- Chairman, Victoria Garden City Property Owners and Residents Association (July 2015 to March 2019)

- Vicar's Warden, St. Paul's Church Breadfruit Lagos (1992 - 1998 2003 -2011)

Honours & Awards

- Episcopal Award for Service
The Bishop of The Diocese of Lagos, Church of Nigeria Anglican Communion. May 2015

- Distinguished Alumni Award for Excellence in Architectural Practice
Department of Architecture University of Lagos, Nigeria. July 2014

- Meritorious Service Award
Boys' Brigade Nigeria, Lagos State Council. December 2012

And several others