

Profile of Gbemi Adelekan

Gbemi Adelekan has over 25 years of experience in a variety of management and business roles in the Financial and the Business sector both in Nigeria and in the UK. Most recently, he is the Managing Director and CEO of Trafalgar and Kwikpay Credit, a consumer finance and outsourcing firms.

Gbemi is a director of Nigeria Malaysia Business Council and an Associate Partner of Dudu Consulting, a Firm working closely with the Malaysian Trade Office and the Malaysian High Commission in Nigeria for FDI and improving bilateral trade and investment in over 15 West African Countries. He is the President of Money Lenders Association of Nigeria and also the President of MPAC, the largest Mobile Payment Agency Network in West Africa, a Network setup to enhance the financial inclusion and adoption of Mobile Money in the Country and empowering people to generate income from multiple springs of enterprise.

Currently, Gbemi is also on the Board of Life Changers Foundation, a non-governmental Group setup to assist the financially challenged and disadvantage of the Community in the areas of Education Vocation and Enterprise. Since inception in 2011, the Foundation has through charitable donations of public-spirited corporate and private citizens have assisted over 2000 people in the Community by moving most of them from 'Poor to Enterprise'

He is involved in other enterprises including, the Chairman of Enterprise Empowerment and Training Unit (EETU)

Gbemi Adelekan is a graduate of University of East London and also hold a Masters in Business Administration (MBA).

As the Secretary General of LERSA (Lekki Estates Residents Association) representing over a million inhabitants of the Lekki Community, located on the East of Lagos State, the Commercial Capital of Nigeria. We take up matters concerning our Community and bring them to the attention of the authorities, for proper resolution to improve the wellbeing of our inhabitants in the area.